House.—Mr. Ashe asked the unanimous con-

ent of the House to record his name in the negative of the passage of the Texas Boundary bill, having come into the Hall yesterday after his name was called. Permission was refused. The House took up the California bill.

The House took up the California bill.

Mr. Boyd proposed to amend the bill by establishing a Territorial government for Utah. He would only remark that it was precisely the amendment which he offered to the Texas Boundary bill, and afterwards withdrew.

Mr. Vinton objected to the amendment.

The Speaker ruled the amendment to be in
